

KUIL-A DRILLING PLATFORM, PEMEX EXPLORACIÓN Y PRODUCCIÓN

Kuil is a small deposit of light crude oil. The Kuil-A platform will be able to process a daily 10,000 barrels of oil and nearly 12 million cu feet of natural gas.

Services Provided:

- Detailed engineering
- Procurement
- Construction

Engineering: Detailed engineering for the 4,900-ST platform is being supervised by McDermott's Altamira office.

Procurement: McDermott handled procurement of materials for this project from Altamira and Houston.

Construction: McDermott's Altamira yard will fabricate the 4,900-ST, four-legged, two-level wellhead platform, which consists of a 1,100-ST, four-legged jacket, 2,000-ST, two-level deck with aluminum helideck and 1,800 ST of piles.

Facilities

- 4,900-ST platform

Location

- Kuil field in the Bay of Campeche, Mexico

Water Depth

- 77 feet

Yards

- Altamira, Mexico

